

Collection #1

Photo of mushrooms in location

Cross-section

Spore print

Description, according to cheat-sheet terms:

I. Cap

- A. Pulvinate shape
- B. Straight margin
- C. Dark red with white spots, white flesh staining yellow
- D. Warty scales, white and dusty
- E. Margin entire, but scales in some specimens
- F. Moist cap surface, scales rather dry, firm flesh
- G. Light almond scent, somewhat sweet

II. Gills

- A. Gills adnexed
- B. Broad
- C. Average thickness
- D. Crowded to closely spaced
- E. White

III. Stem

- A. Central
- B. 1-2.5cm thick
- C. Clavate shape with napiform base

D. White in both young and old specimens

E. Smooth and dry

F. Fibrous and firm

G. Hollow

IV. Partial veil not present

V. Universal Veil Present

A. White

B. Membranous

C. Leaving full intact ring on stem

D. Persistent ring on upper stem

VI. Mycelium not observed

VII. Habitat

Scattered to gregarious, under birch trees, growing from soil in grass and leaf litter, American Fork Canyon (GPS point)